I don't think so. We're pretty happy with our list of vendors and get solicited for this sort of thing all the time.

Hi Carol

Is there a good time when I could call you? I would like to talk to you about who Central City Association of Los Angeles uses to print and embroider your company apparel for you. Do you make these decisions, or would you be willing to point me in the direction of who does?

At Creative Design Tees we print and stitch company emblems, mostly on t-shirts and other garments. Some of our customers have included T.V. shows like The Bone Collector and Fear-Factor, as well as hundreds of Universities.

We can usually turn everything around and send out within 7-10 days for you, and in many cases can keep your t-shirt cost near $4.10 and have several options for embroidered polos in the $10 range plus the cost of your embroidered company logo.

Here is our weblink: Central City Association of Los Angeles Designer. Take a look, and let me know if there is a good time when I could call you.
